Beaufort, South Carolina

Beaufort is recognized by the National Trust for Historic Preservation as one of a “Dozen Distinctive Destinations.” The historic town of Beaufort and the surrounding area (including the Sea Islands), offers everything that one desires. The town of Beaufort has received copious accolades in terms of a small southern town with a diversity of activities, including the arts, cultural events, festivals and fabulous shopping. It is also one of the best low tax towns in America and is known for its mild year-round climate. Beaufort is located within an hour's drive of Charleston, South Carolina and Savannah, GA and their international airports.

The Homes

CoosawRiverEstates is a master planned community which will be developed in two phases. Beautifully wooded homesites averaging between .39 and .79 acres are dappled with live oaks, elegant magnolias and majestic pines, offering 23 limited release waterfront homesites with stellar river views. Many homesites have access to meandering tidal creeks which lace the neighborhood, as well as dock possibilities. Architectural guidelines include Southern Lowcountry, Charleston and Bayou style homes or comparable variations. Homes may be built by selected contractors, or you may furnish your own plans and builder, subject to architectural review and approval. You may choose to build today or in the future. Coosaw River Estates will bring you home to bygone days with comfort, elegance and a southern flair for years of comfortable family living.

Schools

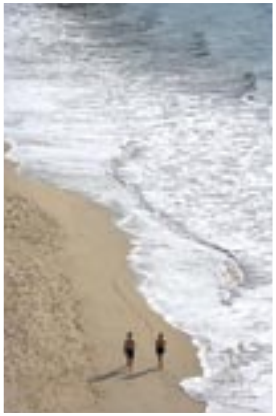

Coosaw River Estates is located in the desirable Lady's Island school district with access to Coosa Elementary, Lady's Island Middle and Beaufort High Schools. Excellent private schools are also nearby: Beaufort Academy, St. Peter's Catholic School and a Montessori school.
